Programme & Venue

An updated version of the conference programme and a list of all confirmed speakers is available on the event website here.

I would also like to inform you that there are still a limited number of places remaining at the conference. If any of your colleagues would like to attend, they can register following the link found here.

I can also confirm once again that the venue for the event will be the The Crowne Plaza – Le Palace, Rue Gineste 3, Brussels and you can find a map to the venue by clicking here.

Online Delegate Networking System & List of Attendees

This is a complimentary tool that provides a secure online area only accessible to registered delegates. It offers a simple search facility that allows you to view the attendee list, browse the profiles of fellow delegates and send messages to any that you wish to make contact with either before, during or after the event date. Contact details are not displayed when communications are sent through this system, although delegates can of course contact each other directly via their own email clients following the initial introduction.

Online Networking for this event is NOW OPEN - please follow the link below.
