

REGERINGSKANSLIET

2012-03-22

Ministry of Justice Sweden

European Commission
Secretariat General
B-1049, Brussels
Belgium

Transposition of Directive 2006/24/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the retention of data generated or processed in connection with the provision of publicly available electronic communications services or of public communications networks and amending Directive 2002/58/EC (infr 2007/1181), pending case C-270/11 at the Court of Justice

The Swedish Government would like to inform the European Commission that on 21 March 2012 the Swedish Parliament decided to adopt the bill on the transposition of the Data Retention Directive. The Swedish Government issued the transposition legislation on 22 March 2012. The legislation will enter into force on 1 May 2012. The Data Retention Directive has thus been fully transposed into national law.

The legislation will be forwarded to the European Commission as soon as it has been published.

Sincerely,

Charlotte von Essen
Director-General for Legal Affairs